ELECTIVE COURSE INFORMATION

COURSE NAME: Remedies

COURSE NUMBER: 8711

PROFESSOR: Barbara E. Wilson

ESSENTIAL PREREQUISITES: Remedies is limited to students in the third-year of law study. Permission of the instructor is required to waive this prerequisite.

DESIRABLE PREREQUISITES: Remedies is a “capstone” course. It is most useful in the last year of law school after you have completed most of your substantive law study.

COURSE BOOKS: TBA

METHOD OF GRADING & APPRAISAL OF STUDENT FOR GRADE: The grade for the course is based on a final examination.

SUMMARY DESCRIPTION OF COURSE: Remedies is offered as a one-semester, two-hour course. Remedies is a blend of principles and practices from many legal disciplines including Torts, Contracts, Property, Damages, History, Equity, Jurisprudence, Civil Procedure and Administrative Law. The course deals primarily with questions and answers concerning what one expects a court to do after a plaintiff prevails on the merits.

RELEVANCY OF COURSE FOR CAREER PURPOSES: While most relevant for those planning to enter litigation practice, Remedies provides an excellent synopsis to many areas of legal study. The course is beneficial for the Multi-state Practice portion of the Bar Exam.

COURSE OUTCOMES: After completing this course, students should have a working knowledge of the most frequently sought legal and equitable remedies, along with a working understanding of when and where restitution may apply as either a stand-alone remedy or an alternative to legal or equitable remedies.
